On Saturday the 5th and Sunday the 6th of December, Bishop Luke of Syracuse will visit St. Alexander Nevsky Cathedral, accompanied by the Pochaev Icon of the Mother of God

On Saturday, December 5th, the greeting of the wonderworking Pochaev Icon of the Mother of God will take place at 5:00 PM, after which His Grace LUKE, Bishop of Syracuse, will officiate the All-Night Vigil.

On Sunday, December 6th, at 9:00 AM, Bishop LUKE will celebrate Divine Liturgy in St. Alexander Nevsky Cathedral.

The services will take place in the presence of the holy icon. Singing the divine services will be the Holy Trinity Seminary Choir from Jordanville.

The parish will be collecting donations for Holy Trinity Seminary through the Benevolent Fund in Memory of Protopresbyter Valery Lukianov.

All are invited to come and pray before the icon of the Mother of God!
